The Honorable John M. Vorys
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Congressman Vorys:

Thank you very much for your thoughtful letter of April 24, 1948.

The enclosure has been carefully examined. You might be interested to know that [redacted] [redacted] has been writing to telephone companies in various States. Although we know of only five other instances of letters from him, it looks as though he were attempting to secure copies of telephone books from every State in the Union. Inasmuch as [redacted] is located in [redacted] it has to date been impossible to run down his precise reason for doing this. The Federal Bureau of Investigation and other security agencies are aware of [redacted] requests, and, needless to say, he is having little luck with his collection activities.
